Erasmus+ youth exchange
in Milcoveni, Romania 02 - 11 May, 2019

what is this youth exchange about?

In 2019 there will be organized European Parliament elections where all member states will decide their MEPs and , according to our partners, the level of information about what happens afterwards in the European Parliament and how the interests of the countries are represented is not clear or even not existent.

Aim of the project:

- to foster a dialogue between young people for a better understanding of the voting and participation process;
- to capacitate the participants to organize local campaigns
- to promote active participation and access to vote for young people
- to increase the knowledge about European elections;

OVERVIEW

The youth exchange will be implemented with the involvement of 50 participants (40 young people and 10 group leaders) from Romania, Estonia, Netherlands, Greece and Spain. During 8 working days, the working methods will be based on non formal education, such as: debates, simulation games, role play activities, dialog with the politicians, World Cafe, team building, intercultural nights, cultural activities and reflections.

what will happen?

preparation

Each groups have to organise meetings regarding 2 topics:

1. To prepare their groups for the exchange
2. To meet the local youth to discuss about their needs, what issues they face etc. The groups will share this experience in the youth exchange

youth exchange + europe's day

There will be an 8-long-program, where the participants will take part in sessions in the topic of active participation and voting.

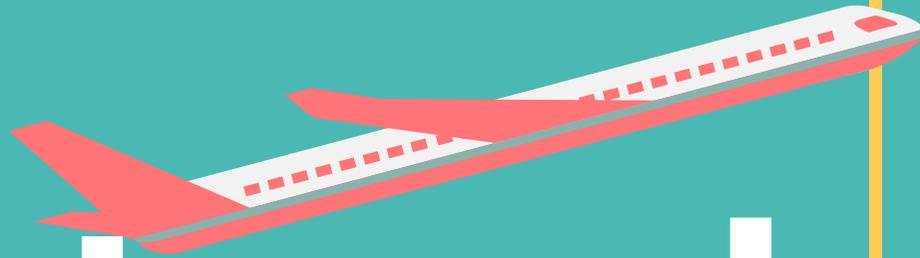

On 9th May there will be an event in the university of Resita dedicated to EU day and promotion of EP elections. The participants will contribute to this event with various activities prepared previously in the exchange.

dissemination

After the exchange, the groups will organise campaigns to promote participation in elections at local level.
