We stand for tolerance

Erasmus+ youth exchange
in Milcoveni, Romania
11 - 22 October, 2019

what is this youth exchange about?

Through this project we want to promote tolerance and understanding among young Roma and non - Roma people to increase their civic involvement and participation. We want to reach this goal through art as a method of promoting a positive image of Roma communities. We also want to reduce prejudices and stereotypes and increase confidence in young people's own strengths

Also, this project aims to reduce the prejudices of young people and help them to emphasize diversity, talent and knowledge. At the same time, our project is responsive to our association's vows to ensure a constant and continuous participation and involvement of young Roma and non - Roma in our activities. As a result of this project we want to create a movie with different theater scenes that promotes tolerance, interculturality and understanding among young Roma and non-Roma.

Aim of the project:

- Increase the civic involvement and participation of the participants
- Develop the artistic skills (theater, music, dance) of the participants
- Increase confidence in their own strengths and motivation of the participants
- Increase the acceptance and understanding of interculturality and diversity
- Develop the capacity of young people to plan, organize and promote educational and arts related events

OVERVIEW

The youth exchange will be implemented with the involvement of 50 participants (45 young people and 5 group leaders) from Romania, Lithuania, Italy, Hungary and Macedonia. During 10 working days, there will be daily activities based on non-formal education, such as: debates, simulation games, role play activities, field visits, team building, intercultural nights, cultural activities and reflections.
