CONNECTING ROMA YOUTH WITH CIVIC OPPORTUNITIES

Training for youth workers

2024 - 1 - RO01 - KA151 - YOU - 000196515

11-19.01.2025

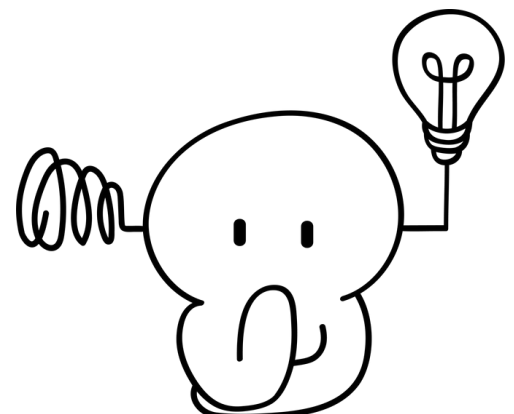

(11 and 19 are travel days)

BREBU, CARAS-SEVERIN
ROMANIA

AIM

To equip youth workers with the skills, knowledge, and tools needed to engage and empower Roma youth, fostering their active participation in democratic processes and aligning with the EU Youth Goals for a more inclusive and cohesive society.

OBJECTIVES

- Increase the knowledge and skills of 35 youth workers on engaging Roma youth by using non-formal education approaches focused on understanding the cultural and social context of Roma communities.
- Strengthen the ability of youth workers to promote Roma youth participation in democratic life through interactive activities that align with EU Youth Goal 9, focusing on civic engagement and decision-making.
- Build the capacity of participants to create inclusive and equality-based initiatives by providing tools and methods aligned with EU Youth Goal 3 to combat discrimination and promote equal opportunities for Roma youth.
- Facilitate the exchange of best practices and peer learning among participants through collaborative exercises and sharing experiences on working with Roma youth, ensuring knowledge transfer across the group.

PROFILE OF THE PARTICIPANTS

Youth Workers and Educators:

Professionals actively working with young people, particularly in non-formal education settings, who are looking to improve their understanding and skills in working with Roma communities.

Volunteers interested in Roma inclusion:

Individuals passionate about social inclusion who wish to deepen their involvement in working with Roma youth, especially in participatory processes and empowerment strategies.

Social Workers with limited experience in Youth Work:

Individuals with experience working with marginalized communities, such as Roma, but who need to develop specific competencies in youth work and engaging young people in democratic life.

Youth leaders from Roma or minority communities:

Youth workers or leaders from Roma or other minority communities who can contribute insights and serve as role models within their communities while enhancing their professional capacities.

Youth Organization representatives:

Participants from youth-focused NGOs or organizations seeking to enhance their capacity to engage Roma youth in their programs and promote inclusivity, equality, and civic participation.

TRAVEL TIPS

If you travel BY PLANE, the closest airport is Timisoara, 120 km from the venue. From there you take either train or bus to Resita or Caransebes. For the train, the tickets can be bought either at the train station or online: <https://mersultrenurilor.infofer.ro/en-GB/Itineraries>.

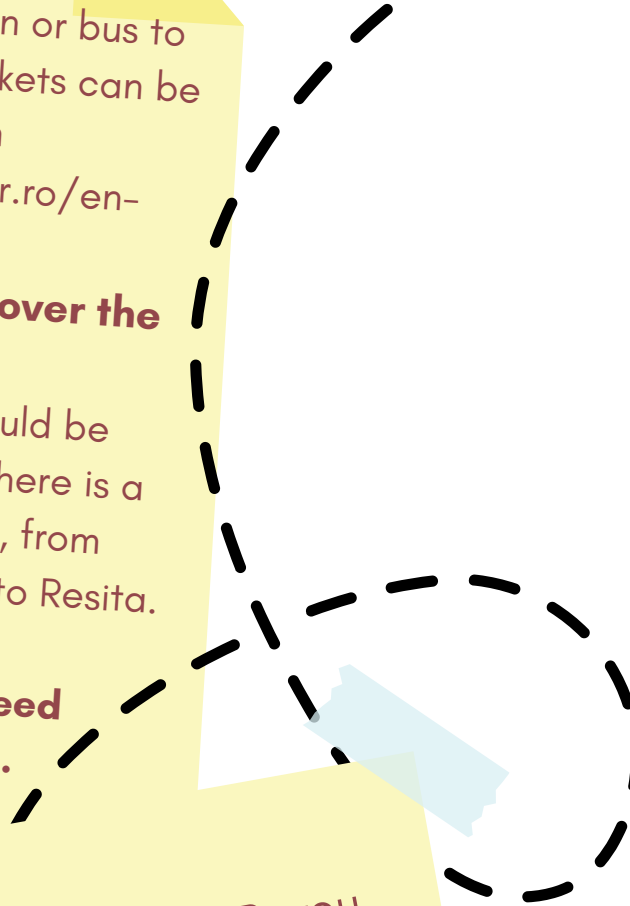

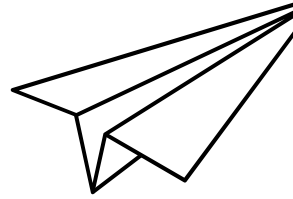

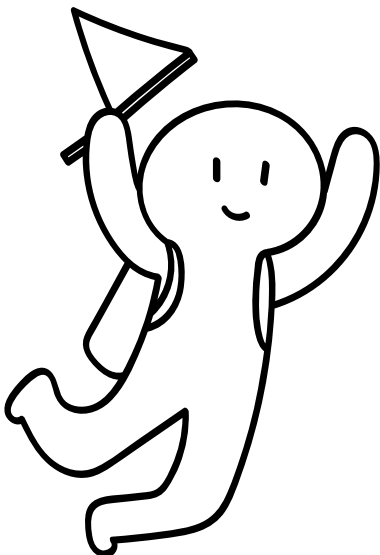

From Resita or Caransebes we will cover the transfers to the venue.

Other options, if you come by plane, would be Belgrade or Bucharest. From Bucharest there is a night train that takes you to Caransebes, from Belgrade there are several transfer options to Resita.

Do not hesitate to contact us if you need support in choosing the best route.

If you come BY CAR, you can arrive directly to the venue. You can find the place and the coordinates on your navigation app by typing:
